The Champions.

The last game between the class foot ball teams was played on last Saturday. The two teams that played the last game represented the Senior and Sophomore classes. During the greater part of the game it was raining, which made it very disagreeable to the players as well as the spectators.

When the whistle blew for the end of the second half the Seniors went down in defeat and the Sophomores were declared the Champions by a score of 5 to 0.

Much cheering was heard from the Senior backers when the Senior sponsors, Miss Allie Gene Drives and Miss Mabel Ponder, two of Opelika's most beautiful young ladies, were driven on the field, accompanied by Lieut. F. J. Houston and Mr. A. R. Gray.

But the Sophomore team had as good a time when Miss Wake-man of Marion, and Miss Allie Armstrong of Auburn came on the field in a carriage which was artistically decorated in the Sophomore class colors. They were accompanied by Mr. W. M. Wilson and Mr. Q. Sorrell.

The game was a hard one and both teams played well. Fifteen minutes after 3 o'clock the two captains met in the middle of the field and tossed for positions. The Sophomores won the toss and selected the kick-off, the Seniors selecting the East goal.

Hogg kicked 30 yards to Park, who advanced it 10 yards. By successive bucks the Seniors kicked 25 yards to Z. P. Smith. Sophomores are held for downs and Johnson fails to gain. Shepard gains 6 yards and McCarroll kicks 25 yards. Gwin J. off side and Sophomores get 10 yards. By successive kicks the Sophomores gained on the Seniors until they were on the 3 yard line and Hogg carried the ball over for a touchdown. Hogg fails to kick goal. Johnson kicks 40 yards to Hogg, who advanced the ball 5 yards. First half ends with the score, Sophomores 5, Seniors 0.

SECOND HALF.

Johnson kicked 25 yards to Z. P. Smith, who advanced the ball 2 yards. Allison goes over guard for 2 yards. Hogg gains 3 yards over guard. Hogg kicks 20 yards to Johnson, who advances the ball 10 yards. Haynie goes around end for 3 yards. Lipscomb gets 2 yards around end. Gwin J. over tackle for 2 yards. Gwin H. over tackle for 2 yards. Shepard around end for 2 yards. Smith

J. C. around end for 1/2 yard. Sophomores off side and Seniors get 10 yards. Gwin J. over tackle for 1 yard and fumbled, but Senior falls on ball. Seniors fail to gain and ball goes over. Hogg kicks 20 yards and Johnson advances it 5 yards. Gwin J. goes over tackle for 4 yards and gets 6 yards over same place. Sophomores off side and Seniors get 10 yards. Sophomores get ball on downs. Hogg kicks 20 yards from 25 yard line to Johnson. Gwin J. goes over tackle for 9 yards. Haynie around end for 10 yards. Lipscomb gets 1 yard around end. Smith goes over extra for 1 yard. McCarroll kicks 20 yards to Hogg, who returns the kick to Park, and ball is advanced 5 yards. Johnson goes through center for 5 yards. Sophomores get ball on trick play. Hogg goes over center for 1 1/2 yards. Hogg kicks 20 yards and Sophomores get the ball. Ward around end for 6 yards. Allison through center for 2 yards. Lay over guard for 3 yards. Hogg around end for 1 yard. Sophomores fail to gain and ball goes over. McCarroll kicks but is blocked, and Senior falls on ball. McCarroll kicks 25 yards. Lay over guard for 2 yards. Hogg goes over guard for 1 yard. Allison over center for 1 yard. Seniors ball on downs. Haynie goes around end for 5 yards. Second half ends with the score still 5 to 0 in favor of Sophomores.

PROF. THACH UPHOLDS ATHLETICS.

A Discussion in which Auburn's Position on Athletics is Clearly Shown.

At the last session of the Southern Educational Association college-athletics was fully discussed and the following summary of the suggestions offered by Prof. Thach clearly shows how the faculty and students here are disposed towards football:

"Historically the spirit of athletics cannot be identified with the spirit of savagery. Greece stood at the acme of civilization, and Greek athletics is today a proverb. The Olympian games have never been surpassed in magnitude, spectacular brilliancy and universal popular esteem. Germany and France and the Latin races do not cultivate school games and many sports. But how about England? The love of strenuous, vigorous physical contest is an unbroken English tradition. It is in the English blood; and today the English speaking, football playing people are the dominant people of the world. Brain and brawn have ever gone together.

"College Athletics has come to stay. College people are confronted by a condition, and not a theory. The question is, what shall we do with it? The answer is, to try not repression, but guidance, direction, control.

"Football is only one phase of college sport, but it is, in fact, the imperial theme. It is a game of fierce personal encounter, but the line between foul and fair is a hard and fast one and easily delineated, and, by a gentleman, easily observed. Football teaches the fundamental principles of united action, of co-operation, of subordination of the individual self for the complete action of the whole. It teaches self-control; it emphasizes the necessity of self-denial and training for a given definite end. College spirit and esprit du corps is directly enhanced by athletics. Professionalism can be eliminated; indeed, has been largely eliminated in the Southern Association. The idea that such contests can provoke rivalry of feeling between the college faculties is inconceivable. Gate money is received by the athletic management but not a cent for the individual. The pecuniary motive is absolutely unknown to the player as a man.

"The inter-collegiate game should as far as possible be confined to the college campus.

Dr. Bull's Lecture.

On last Friday evening Rev. Mr. Bull, of Atlanta, gave a delightful lecture in Langdon Hall. Mr. Bull is one of the most brilliant preachers of the Southern Presbyterian church. He was formerly pastor of the Auburn and Opelika churches. A large audience assembled to hear him describe his "Trip to Europe." The lecturer was at his best and united in a charming manner instruction with entertainment. A number of unusually fine stereopticon views added greatly to the pleasure of the evening.

"All forms of athletics should be fostered. Track athletics, field games, tennis, basket ball, appeal to different elements of the student body. Even those students who do not enter the contest look on and meanwhile breathe fresh air and are freed from the manifold temptations of idleness.

"There can be no doubt that the moral tone of the college is better today than forty, even thirty years ago,—less drinking, less horse-play. Athletics offers a safety-valve for the immense energy of the young barbarians at play which otherwise bottled up will finally explode most violently in many ways."

The last and deciding of the class football games was played last Saturday between the Senior and Sophomore teams, with a result of 5 to 0 in favor of the Sophomores. The game was not lacking in interest from the time that the referee's whistle was blown until time was called at the end of the second half. Each team went into the scrimmage with the full determination to leave nothing undone that would tend to bring them out victorious; each recognized that the fight was to be a brisk one and that in winning something would be done worthy of praise.

For the Seniors, Jerry and Houston Gwin, Park and Johnston, perhaps, did the best playing; while Lay, Hogg and Allison did the best work for the Sophomores.

Especially effective was the hurdling of Lay and Allison, while Hogg showed himself at his best in punting.

Baseball practice will not be regularly begun until after the examinations. It is rumored that the number of men trying for team this year is unusually large. This fact in itself should be very encouraging. Let Auburn for one time in her baseball history turn out a successful team.

The "write-up" of Auburn in the Montgomery Advertiser was neatly gotten up. A large part of the space was given to descriptions of the college buildings, equipments, etc.

The lecture on "Child Labor," by Miss McTayden was delivered in the college chapel Wednesday morning and proved to be very interesting and instructive.

The vocal recital by Miss Harrison was enjoyed by all.

The Harvard basketball team played its first game of the inter-collegiate series Saturday evening, January 18th, in the gymnasium, being defeated by Cornell, 34 to 26. The game was very closely contested until the latter part of the second half, when Cornell made three easy goals from the floor and two from fouls. Throughout the game, however, Cornell showed superior team work and was more successful than Harvard at covering and uncovering. Harvard's goals were consequently all made in scrimmages, while Cornell frequently made goals from an open field. Harvard, however, played the more aggressive game and kept the ball in Cornell's territory most of the time.—Ex.
